JUDGMENT

Radhakrishnan, Ag.C.J.

We find no infirmity in the impugned order passed by the learned Single Judge. However, considering the facts and circumstances of the case, the appellant is given six weeks' time for making the payment as directed by the learned Single Judge. It is brought to our notice that the appellant has already preferred an appeal before the Revenue Divisional Officer and it is pending consideration. It is open to the appellant to make a request for local inspection in which event the Revenue Divisional Officer will take note of the same and pass appropriate orders in accordance with law. If the amount is not paid as directed it will be open to the authorities to take coercive steps.

Writ appeal is disposed of accordingly.
